

Dear Colleague,

Call for Abstracts - AfriComp5

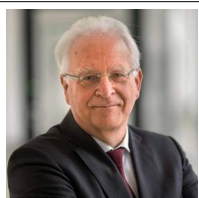

It is our pleasure to remind you of the 5th African Conference on Computational Mechanics (AfriComp5), which was originally scheduled to take place in November 2020. Due to the pandemic, the event was postponed for 2 years and will now be held in full face-to-face mode in Cape Town, South Africa, from 02 – 04 November 2022.

The event will take place at the University of Cape Town Graduate School of Business campus, which is situated in the V&A Waterfront district at the foot of the iconic Table Mountain in the heart of Cape Town's historic harbour.

AfriComp is an international conference series providing a forum for researchers and students in computational mechanics on the African continent to interact with members of the computational mechanics community from around the world. Please visit the event website for information on the technical programme (<https://africomp.info/conference-theme/>) and the confirmed Keynote presentations (<https://africomp.info/speaker/>).

We are delighted to feature the following distinguished plenary speakers at the conference:

	Professor John T. Foster, The University of Texas at Austin, USA
	Professor Wing Kam Liu, Northwestern University, USA
	Professor Jan Nordström, Linköping University, Sweden
	Professor Daya Reddy, University of Cape Town, South Africa

Professor Peter Wriggers, University of Hannover, Germany

We invite you to participate in this scientific and technical event and submit a paper abstract in a topic of your expertise.

Guidelines for the abstract as well as further information concerning the conference and the event venue (accommodation, touristic activities, etc.) may be found on the conference website at <https://africomp.info/call-for-abstracts/>.

Key Date: Deadline for submission of abstracts is the 15 May 2022.

Please note that, for organizational reasons, all abstracts originally submitted for AFRICOMP in 2020 need to be re-submitted. We apologize for any inconvenience in this regard.

If you require more information, please do not hesitate to contact us at:
secretariat@africomp2020.org

We are looking forward to receiving your abstract and remain with best regards from Cape Town,

Sebastian Skatulla
Chairman, on behalf of the Local Organizing Committee of AfriComp5
